Spiritual Apathy

*But the Lord hurled a great wind upon the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship threatened to break up. v. 4

* God uses the storm to get us back on the right path.

Then the mariners were afraid, and each cried out to his god. And they hurled the cargo that was in the ship into the sea to lighten it for them.

*But Jonah had gone down into the inner part of the ship and had lain down and was fast asleep. v. 5

* His sin turns into a drug that puts him in total spiritual apathy.

*So the captain came and said to him, "What do you mean, you sleeper? Arise, call out to your god! Perhaps the god will give a thought to us, that we may not perish." v. 6

*And they said to one another, "Come, let us cast lots, that we may know on whose account this evil has come upon us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. v. 7

*Then they said to him, "Tell us on whose account this evil has come upon us. What is your occupation? And where do you come from? What is your country? And of what people are you?" ⁹And he said to them, "I am a Hebrew, and I fear the Lord, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land." vs. 8-9

* Hypocrisy: Confessing our faith while openly disobeying God.

*Then the men were exceedingly afraid and said to him, "What is this that you have done!" For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the Lord, because he had told them. v. 10

11 Then they said to him, “What shall we do to you, that the sea may quiet down for us?” For the sea grew more and more tempestuous. 12 He said to them, “Pick me up and hurl me into the sea; then the sea will quiet down for you, for I know it is because of me that this great tempest has come upon you.”

vs. 11-12

13 Nevertheless, the men rowed hard^[b] to get back to dry land, but they could not, for the sea grew more and more tempestuous against them. 14 Therefore they called out to the Lord, “O Lord, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not on us innocent blood, for you, O Lord, have done as it pleased you.” vs. 13-14

So they picked up Jonah and hurled him into the sea, and the sea ceased from its raging. v. 15

Then the men feared the Lord exceedingly, and they offered a sacrifice to the Lord and made vows. v. 16

But you offer forgiveness, that we might learn to fear you.

Psalms 130:4 NTV

* God is able to draw people to Himself in spite of us.

And the Lord appointed a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights. v. 17

* Jonah discovers that His love is found under the wrath of God.
