A Father's Role

"Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. ²"Honor your father and mother" (this is the first commandment with a promise), ³"that it may go well with you and that you may live long in the land." Ephesians 6:1-3

"Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord."

Ephesians 6:4

"Fathers..." Ephesians 6:4a

1. The main person in charge in the education of the children is the Dad.

"...do not provoke your children to anger..." Ephesians 6:4b

2. Your job is to edify, not triumph over your children.

a) Be careful with the tone and the language.

b) Prepare for them to behave according to their age.

c) Plan ahead for discipline.

d) Don't throw low punches to their heart.

e) Work on your relationship with each of your children.

"... but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord." Ephesians 6:4c

3. Educate them the way the Bible teaches us.

"Give ear, O my people, to my teaching; incline your ears to the words of my mouth! ²I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings from of old, ³things that we have heard and known, that our fathers have told us. ⁴We will not hide them from their children, but tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the Lord, and his might, and the wonders that he has done." Psalms 78:1-4

Follow us on:

a) Teach your children how wonderful God is.

*"He established a testimony in Jacob and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers to teach to their children..." Psalm 78:5

b) Explain God's commandments to your children.

c) Teach them to obey them by setting the example.

* Two ways to achieve these things:

Enjoy your role as Father.

Pray daily for your children.

*... that the next generation might know them, the children yet unborn, and arise and tell them to their children, ⁷ so that they should set their hope in God and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments; Psalm 78:6-7
